WHITE FLOWERING DOGWOOD (CORNUS FLORIDA)

Beautiful large white flowers in Spring, Red leaves in Autumn, Bright Red Berries in Fall. The horizontal branching habit of the White Flowering Dogwood lends itself to the Architecture of our modern homes. Use a clump form 4/6 ft. from certain corners of buildings with low evergreens or shrubs around the base, to soften corners. Plant as individual specimens in lawn areas as one, or in groups of three or five. They make beautiful screens and borders by using the clump form.

Natural Picturesque Shapes.
